LEED® GREEN ASSOCIATE CERTIFICATION
(CED 1236 W1 or CED 1236 B1)

Offered in partnership with the US Green Building Council Long Island Chapter, Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design (LEED®) accreditation distinguishes building professionals with the knowledge and skills to successfully steward the LEED® certification process. LEED® Green Associates have demonstrated a thorough understanding of green building practices and principles and the LEED® Rating System.

Topics Covered Include:
• Water and Innovation in Design
• Location and Transportation
• Sustainable Sites
• Integrative Process
• Energy and Atmosphere
• Indoor Environmental Quality
• Materials & Resources
• Review & Practice Exam

The LEED® Green Associate credential demonstrates a solid and current foundation in green building principles and practices. From marketers to lawyers, landscape architects to education professionals, and product manufacturers to policymakers, LEED® Green Associates enjoy a broad understanding of sustainability that bolsters their careers and enhances their lives. The LEED® Green Associate credential denotes basic knowledge of green design, construction and operations. Professions that may be interested in the LEED® Green Associate include real estate, law, planning, manufacturing, marketing, leasing, sales, education and those new to green building.

Students will be provided with a copy of all study materials. Students should bring a notebook or computer to take notes in class. LEED® Green Associates earn their credential by passing a two-hour, computer-based exam comprising 100 randomly delivered multiple-choice questions. For more information, visit www.usgbc.org. The exam fee is additional.
